Business Expo Continues to Grow

The fifth annual Strongsville Business Expo, co-sponsored by the City of Strongsville, the Rotary Club of Strongsville, and the Strongsville Chamber of Commerce, will be held at the Ehrnfelt Recreation Center on Thursday, November 6th. The Expo is open to the public from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. More than 100 businesses and organizations will set up booths at the event. Special guest Bill Wills, morning host of WTAM 1100 Radio, will be the Master of Ceremonies for the event. Thank you in advance to the Strongsville DECA class for helping the vendors set up and take down for the event.

Strongsville APP Will be Introduced at Breakfast

The Strongsville Chamber of Commerce is partnering with The City of Strongsville to launch a new application for mobile phones. Please join us on Wednesday, November 12th at 8am for a FREE breakfast at Ehrnfelt Event Center. This event is open to the public.

The new City of Strongsville mobile app will be available free of charge and will feature: road closings alerts, urgent city matters, local news, local announcements, local events and activities, links to general information about the city, and a business directory.

Please register online or call the Chamber office at (440) 238-3366.

Chamber Holiday Scholarship Dance

The Strongsville Chamber of Commerce will hold their annual holiday scholarship dance on Friday, December 5th at Michaud's Towne n Country, 16808 Pearl Road.

Doors will open at 7:00 p.m. and conclude at 12:00 midnight. This event has become the unofficial kickoff to the holiday season in Strongsville.

Joe and Marcy Lucchese

Back by popular demand, the Newsmaker Band will be performing again this year at the scholarship dance. The Newsmaker Band is based in Detroit, MI. You can see a sample of their work at www.metacafe.com/newsmaker.

Several local restaurants will once again provide a "Taste of the 'Ville" with food available on a cash basis from Don's Pomeroy House, Old Carolina Barbecue and Shinto. Shinto will also be hosting the Martini Bar. We will also have a Silent Auction and "Spirits of Strongsville" Raffle at the dance.

The Chamber has been sponsoring this dance for 47 years with the proceeds going to fund scholarships for graduates of Strongsville High School, Polaris Career Center, and a donation to the Media Center at Sts. Joseph and John School. This past spring the Chamber funded scholarships for 19 students with proceeds from the dance.

Reserve your table early! $350 (5 couples) or individual tickets ($70 per couple). Call the Chamber office at 440.238.3366 or stop in at the Chamber office, 18829 Royalton Road, after November 1, to purchase your tickets.

Tickets may also be purchased on the Chamber website www.strongsvillechamber.com.

THERE ARE MANY BENEFITS OF BEING A CHAMBER MEMBER

The Chamber is changing its membership dues structure. Starting in January, Businesses with up to 50 employees will invest a $125 fee, those with 51 to 100 employees will invest $175, and the businesses with more than 100 employees will invest $225. Civic membership dues will be $100 and civic senior (60 and over) will be $50.

There will no longer be an additional fee of $20.00 for the website link. The website link will be included for all members going forward.

Membership invoices will be mailed to all current members in January. Any member wishing to make the investment before the end of the year, should contact the office at 440.238.3366.

Benefits gained by being a chamber member are available in many ways. Remember to take advantage of excellent opportunities for your business to attract new customers and share information with our community and the world.

Log in today to your chamber member portal to take advantage of these features!

- Online Payments - Pay your membership fees by credit card online. Go to the www.strongsvillechamber.com, Members Info, Online Bill Payment Option and complete the form. Register and pay for events online.

Strongsville Image Book

Mayor Thomas P. Perciak and the City of Strongsville are once again endorsing the 13th Annual Strongsville Image Book.

The publication which is produced for the City by Strongsville Chamber of Commerce member Image Builders Marketing, will feature informative articles regarding the Mayor's office, Economic Development, Education, Recreation, Finance, Safety Services, Senior Services, Shopping, a map of Strongsville, Restaurant Guide and list of Important phone numbers. This year the cover will feature the Faces of Strongsville, with stories about the businesses who participate in this special section. What a great way to highlight local area business and community leaders!

For as little as $295.00 your business can be part of this annual publication that is direct mailed to 23,000 homes and businesses as well as distributed throughout the year to new residents. The magazine can also be viewed online at the Strongsville City and Chamber of Commerce websites.

Each year Image Builders Marketing generously donates a portion of the sales toward a local community project.

This year's donation will go toward the Holiday lighting on the Commons.
